

FEAST: ST. JOSEPH THE WORKER

BE COMMITTED TO YOUR DAILY DUTIES

By Pope Francis (First published on May 1, 2014)

On May 1st, we celebrate Saint Joseph the Worker and begin the month traditionally dedicated to Our Lady. I want to focus on these two figures, so important in the life of Jesus, the Church and in our lives, with two brief thoughts: the first on work, the second on the contemplation of Jesus.

In the Gospel of St. Matthew, in one of the moments when Jesus returns to his town, Nazareth, and speaks in the synagogue, the amazement of his fellow townspeople at his wisdom is emphasized and they ask: "Is not this the carpenter's son?". Jesus comes into history among us, born of Mary by the power of God but with the presence of Saint Joseph, the legal father who cares for him and also teaches him his work. Jesus is born and lives in a family, in the Holy Family, learning the craft of carpenter from Saint Joseph in his workshop in Nazareth, sharing with him the commitment, effort, satisfaction and also the difficulties of every day.

This reminds us of the dignity and importance of work. The book of Genesis tells us that God created man and woman entrusting them with the task of filling the earth and subduing it, which does not mean exploiting it, but nurturing and protecting it, caring for it through their work (Gen 1:28; 2:15). Work is part of God's loving plan, we are called to cultivate and care for all the goods of creation and in this way participate in the work of creation. Work is fundamental to the dignity of a person.

Work, to use an image, "anoints" us with dignity, fills us with dignity, makes us similar to God, who has worked and still works, who always acts (Jn 5:17). It gives us the ability to maintain ourselves, our family, to contribute to the growth of our nation. Here I think of the difficulties which in various countries today afflicts the world of work and business; I think of how many, and not just young people, are unemployed, many times due to a purely economic conception of society, which seeks selfish profit, beyond the parameters of social justice.

I would like to speak especially to young people: be committed to your daily duties, your study, your work, to relationships of friendship, to helping others; your future depends on how you live these precious years of your life. Do not be afraid of commitment, of sacrifice and do not look with fear towards the future; keep your hope alive: there is always a light on the horizon.

In the silence of daily events, St. Joseph, together with Mary, have one common center of attention: Jesus. They accompany and nurture, with commitment and tenderness, the growth of the Son of God made man for us, reflecting on everything that happened. In the Gospels, St. Luke twice emphasizes the attitude of Mary, which is also that of St. Joseph: "She kept all these things and pondered them in her heart" (2,19-51).

To listen to the Lord, we must learn to contemplate, feel His constant presence in our lives and we must stop and converse with Him, give him space in prayer. Each of us, even you boys and girls, how much space do I give to the Lord?

In this month of May, I would like to recall the importance and beauty of the prayer of the Holy Rosary. Reciting the Hail Mary, we are led to contemplate the mysteries of Jesus, that is, to reflect on the key moments of his life, so that, as with Mary and St. Joseph, He is the center of our thoughts, of our attention and our actions. Praying together is a precious moment that further strengthens family life, friendship! Let us learn to pray more in the family and as a family!

OUR LADY OF PERPETUAL HELP PARISH

April 30 2017

3rd Sunday of Easter

Children Help Us Bring Down Barriers

Dear Parishioners,

As you all know by now, I like to make a point of speaking to children at Mass. Just as children are the source of joy for the family, they bring lessons of humility and understanding to all of us even in the church. In Matthew 19:14 Jesus says, "Let the little children come to me and do not hinder them, for to such belongs the kingdom of heaven." This is one of the Scripture passages we often read at Baptisms.

Why does Jesus say this? It's because he wants children to be close to him and to be blessed by him. It was wonderful to see so many parents bring their little ones to Mass on Easter Sunday. Perhaps the Easter Egg hunt had something to do with it! And that is good because we want our children to have a blessed and happy encounter with Jesus at Sunday Mass as well as other events around the parish. Parents, I encourage you to bring your children to Jesus every Sunday so that it may create in them a sense of belonging and a real connection to God and the parish family.

Pope Francis' Easter message says, "The heartbeat of the Risen Lord is granted to us as a gift, a present, a new horizon. The beating heart of the Risen Lord is given to us, and we are asked to give it in turn as a transforming force, as the leaven of a new humanity. In the resurrection, Christ rolled back the stone of the tomb, but he wants also to break down all the walls that keep us locked in our sterile pessimism, in our carefully constructed ivory towers that isolate us from life, in our compulsive need for security and in boundless ambition that can make us compromise the dignity of others."

Children offer us wonderful opportunities to break down the walls of isolation. Let us learn from them. Let us also ask our Blessed Mother to help us approach her Son with childlike simplicity and humility. Easter blessings to all!

Yours in Christ,
Fr. Babu Mathew, C.Ss.R

Stewardship Reflection

"Did not our hearts burn within us while He talked to us on the road, while He opened to us the scriptures?" -- LUKE 24:32

How often do we take the time to discern what Jesus wants from us? Are our prayers always petitions, asking Jesus to do things for us? If so, that's a one-sided relationship. Living our faith means developing a personal relationship with Jesus. Just like any friendship, there is give and take, each side listening to the other. Take time in silence to listen to what Jesus is asking of you.

Easter Egg Hunt!!

EASTER CELEBRATIONS

Children took the joy of Easter out to the south lawn of the parish this year where the Easter Egg Hunt was held. As soon as Fr Babu gave the green lights, the kids made a mad dash armed with brown paper bags. The Easter Egg Hunt after the 9am and 11am Masses has become something of a tradition at OLPH now.

Over 200 little bags of chocolate eggs were strewn around the lawn during Mass by "the Easter bunny." The children were thrilled to find that apart from chocolate eggs, there were other little treats such as ring pops and hard candy as well as small puzzles, toys and stuffies.

ON THE ROAD WITH THE STORY OF ST. ALPHONSUS

OLPH Youth Ministry are working on a concert which will feature themes in the life of St. Alphonsus through the use of contemporary music. They hope to take the show on the road if they are able to raise the funds.

It's not every day that one gets to tell the story of a saint through song. This is what the young people of OLPH Youth Ministry are currently working on with the support of the parish.

Theresa Barao, Youth Ministry Coordinator said the idea is to get our young people working on a project which will bring together some of our diverse talents, do some outreach work and evangelize.

"Music is my passion so this project is quite exciting. Being able to find music that expresses some of the thoughts in the writings of St. Alphonsus is not easy. His writings are deep yet easy to understand... with good translations of 18th century Italian! We are hoping to express some of the themes that he wrote about so passionately. He had a deep love for Christ in his birth, death and resurrection as well as Jesus in the Eucharist."

The youth group is taking their concert on a road trip to two Redemptorist parishes in Saskatoon and Grand Prairie for a week in the summer.

Chloe Wong, who is the pianist for the group said: "I'm really looking forward to spending more time with the other youths and sharing our love for music."

Although I'm slightly anxious about a road trip and travelling to so many places in a short span of time, I'm sure it'll be a really good experience for me and everyone else attending."

Sylvie Son who is a singer with the group said: "I hope to overcome my fear of performing in front of lots of people, especially people I don't know. I also just want to have a good time with my choir group. I expect it would be a long bus ride, but with lots of conversation and just chilling out."

Said Theresa: "I hope our parishioners will support this endeavor. The Mother's Day Dance is one way we hope to raise funds for this. It is going to be a lovely event for all mothers. And you don't have to dance if you don't want to! It's a nice time to socialize and have fun with friends and family."

The funds raised will go into the cost of the production, travel, rental of equipment and expenses on the trip.

The youth are also looking for support through the donation of silent auction items which mothers would love - gift baskets, restaurants vouchers etc. The Youth Ministry would really appreciate your support. You can contact Theresa at olphyouthmin@gmail.com. Thank you!
