Be Part of Our Lady’s Centennial Project

Dear Parishioners,

On a blizzard-blinded day in February 1923, Redemptorist Fr. John F Coghlan arrived by trans-Canada rail to begin his new assignment out West. His task: lay the groundwork for a new parish for the Redemptorist expansion in these parts. With Archbishop Timothy Casey’s blessing, Fr Coghlan set about looking for a temporary place of worship. He rented a store-front space on West Broadway which was once a butcher’s shop, set up kitchen chairs to seat 85 and brought in 2 portable oil stoves for heating. In this humble setting, the first OLPH Parish Sunday Mass was celebrated on July 29 that year.

Next year we will celebrate this milestone - 100 years of the Redemptorists in Vancouver. 100 years of prayer and Eucharistic celebrations in this Catholic community. 100 years of dedication to Our Lady of Perpetual Help.

The Centennial Project

To mark the significance of this event, we have looked at how we can serve our congregation better. In 1926, Fr Coghlan built a new church which was later enlarged. Some improvements must now be made. Here is a summary:

Entrance

- An elevator to facilitate the use of washrooms and the Parish Hall for the elderly and wheelchair users

Sanctuary

- The placement of the tabernacle behind the altar as mandated by the Archdiocese of Vancouver
- Updated alcoves for the icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and St Alphonsus
- Updated furnishings in the sanctuary
- Improved lighting in the side aisles and better overall sound system
- Organized seating for the choir area
- A new Redemptorist stained glass window to mark the Centennial

The primary objectives of these changes are greater accessibility for all and fuller participation in the Eucharist. An elevator, something we have discussed for years, would make the church more accessible for Mass, prayer visits, study programs and hospitality for the elderly and wheelchair users. The lack of easy access to the washrooms keeps some people away from Church and prevents them from joining in parish activities.

On the main level, the proper designation of the tabernacle was a high-priority recommendation made by Archbishop Miller in his 2019 Pastoral Visit to OLPH Parish. We knew this would require significant redesigning of the sanctuary. Brighter lights and better sound will also ensure a fuller participation in the Mass for all. The estimated cost of this undertaking is $220,000.

Continued overleaf...

Fr John F Coghlan, CSSR

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

As for you, man of God, pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance, gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith; take hold of eternal life, to which you were called and for which you made the good confession in the presence of many witnesses.

1 Tim. 6:11-12

About Project Advance

I would like to be able to raise the funds for our Centennial Project through Project Advance, over this year and the next. Many of you would have received a Project Advance letter in the mail about the Fall Phase of this Appeal.

The diocesan goal set by the Archdiocese of Vancouver for our parish is $49,800. As you know, funds raised beyond this amount are rebated to the parish. This overflow is what we are counting on to get our Centennial Project completed successfully.

The generosity of our regular Project Advance has brought our donation total so far to $36,385. My hope is to raise $140,000 this year and $180,000 next year. We are still some ways off our target for this year, however, I am confident we can make rapid strides if more parishioners appreciate the importance of our Centennial Project and make a contribution.

One way to make donations more manageable is to use pre-authorized giving via credit or direct debit. This way, payments begun now can easily continue through to next year. Your 2022 Project Advance tax receipt will reflect payments made till end of December this year. Payments from January till December 2023 will go into next year's tax receipt.

Another suggestion to help us reach our goal is to give weekly through the Project Advance link in the parish newsletter. If you're not on the weekly email list yet, please email Bertilla Watanabe, Pastoral Coordinator at bwatanabe@rcav.org.

Our Centennial Project is a very important milestone for this parish. Your gift will be remembered and appreciated every time someone comes to our parish to pray, celebrate Mass and join in the Eucharist. That is indeed something to celebrate!

Yours in Christ,
Fr Babu Mathew, CSsR
