

Liturgy of the Word

Just as there are three readings at Mass, so too are three readings a part of the wedding service. You will need to choose:

- A reading from the Old Testament (except in Easter season when the 1st reading is traditionally chosen from the Acts of the Apostles or the Book of Revelation)
- A responsorial psalm (if this is not sung by the cantor/choir)
- A reading from the New Testament
- A Gospel

FIRST READING

OT - Wedding #1

Genesis 1:26-28, 31a

Male and female God created them.

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Then God said,

“Let us make man in our image, according to our likeness;
and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea,
and over the birds of the air,
and over the cattle,
and over all the wild animals of the earth,
and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.”

So God created man in his image, in the image of God he created him;
male and female he created them.

God blessed them, and God said to them,

“Be fruitful and multiply, and fill the earth and subdue it;
and have dominion over the fish of the sea
and over the birds of the air
and over every living thing that moves upon the earth.”

God saw everything that he had made,
and indeed it was very good.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Genesis 2:18-24

They become one flesh.

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Then the Lord God said,

“It is not good that the man should be alone;

I will make him a helper as his partner.”

So out of the ground

the Lord God formed every animal of the field

and every bird of the air,

and brought them to the man to see what he would call them;

and whatever the man called every living creature,

that was its name.

The man gave names to all cattle,

and to the birds of the air,

and to every animal of the field;

but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner.

So the Lord God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man,

and he slept:

then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh.

And the rib that the Lord God had taken from the man

he made into a woman and brought her to the man.

Then the man said,

“This at last is bone of my bones

and flesh of my flesh;

this one shall be called Woman,

for out of Man this one was taken.”

Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Genesis 24:48-51, 58-67

*Isaac loved Rebekah, so he was comforted
after his mother's death.*

A reading from the book of Genesis.

Abraham's servant said to Laban,
"I bowed my head and worshipped the Lord,
and blessed the Lord, the God of my master Abraham,
who had led me by the right way
to obtain the daughter of my master's kinsman for his son.

Now then, if you will deal loyally and truly with my master, tell me;
and if not, tell me,
so that I may turn either to the right hand or to the left."

Then Laban and Bethuel answered,

"The thing comes from the Lord;
we cannot speak to you anything bad or good.

Look, Rebekah is before you,
take her and go,
and let her be the wife of your master's son, as the Lord has spoken."

Rebekah's mother and brother called her, and asked her,

"Will you go with this man?"

She said, "I will."

So they sent away their sister Rebekah and her nurse
along with Abraham's servant and his men.

And they blessed Rebekah and said to her,

"May you, our sister, become thousands of myriads;
may your offspring gain possession of the gates of their foes."

Then Rebekah and her maids rose up,
mounted the camels, and followed the man;
thus the servant took Rebekah, and went his way.

Now Isaac had come from Beer-lahai-roi,
and was settled in the Negev.

Isaac went out in the evening to walk in the field;

and looking up, he saw camels coming.
And Rebekah looked up, and when she saw Isaac,
she slipped quickly from the camel,
and said to the servant,
“Who is the man over there, walking in the field to meet us?”
The servant said, “It is my master.”
So Rebekah took her veil and covered herself.
And the servant told Isaac all the things that he had done.
Then Isaac brought her into his mother Sarah’s tent.
He took Rebekah, and she became his wife;
and he loved her.
So Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

OT - Wedding #4

Tobit 7:6-14

*May the Lord of heaven guide and prosper you both this night
and grant you mercy and peace.*

A reading from the book of Tobit.

Raguel jumped up and kissed Tobias and wept.
He also spoke to him as follows,
“Blessings on you, my child,
son of a good and noble father!
O most miserable of calamities
that such an upright and beneficent man has become blind!”
He then embraced his kinsman Tobias and wept.
His wife Edna also wept for him,
and their daughter Sarah likewise wept.
Then Raguel slaughtered a ram from the flock
and received them very warmly.
When they had bathed and washed themselves
and had reclined to dine, Tobias said to Raphael, “Brother Azariah, ask Raguel to give me my kinswoman Sarah.”
But Raguel overheard it and said to the lad,

“Eat and drink, and be merry tonight.
For no one except you, brother,
has the right to marry my daughter Sarah.
Likewise I am not at liberty to give her
to any other man than yourself
because you are my nearest relative.
But let me explain to you the true situation more fully, my child.
I have given her to seven men of our kinsmen,
and all died on the night when they went in to her.
But now, my child, eat and drink,
and the Lord will act on behalf of you both.”
But Tobias said,
“I will neither eat nor drink anything
until you settle the things that pertain to me.”
So Raguel said, “I will do so.
She is given to you in accordance with the decree in the book of Moses,
and it has been decreed from heaven that she be given to you.
Take your kinswoman;
from now on you are her brother and she is your sister.
She is given to you from today and forever.
May the Lord of heaven, my child,
guide and prosper you both this night
and grant you mercy and peace.”
Then Raguel summoned his daughter Sarah.
When she came to him
he took her by the hand and gave her to Tobias, saying, “Take her to be your wife
in accordance with the law and decree written in the book of Moses.
Take her and bring her safely to your father.
And may the God of heaven prosper your journey with his peace.”
Then Raguel called her mother
and told her to bring writing material;
and he wrote out a copy of a marriage contract,
to the effect that he gave Sarah to Tobias as wife

according to the decree of the law of Moses.

Then they began to eat and drink.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

OT - Wedding #5

Tobit 8:4b-8

Grant that we may grow old together.

A reading from the book of Tobit.

On their wedding night,

Tobias got out of bed and said to Sarah,

“Sister, get up, and let us pray and implore our Lord
that he may grant us mercy and safety.”

So she got up,

and they began to implore that they might be kept safe.

Tobias began by saying,

“Blessed are you, O God of our fathers,

and blessed is your name in all generations forever.

Let the heavens and the whole creation bless you forever.

You made Adam,

and for him you made his wife Eve as a helper and support.

From the two of them the human race has sprung.

You said, ‘It is not good that the man should be alone;

let us make a helper for him like himself.’

I am now taking this kinswoman of mine,

not because of lust, but with sincerity.

Grant that she and I may find mercy

and that we may grow old together.”

And they both said, “Amen, Amen.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Proverbs 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

A woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.

A reading from the book of Proverbs.

A capable wife, who can find her?
She is far more precious than jewels.
The heart of her husband trusts in her,
and he will have no lack of gain.
She does him good, and not harm,
all the days of her life.
She seeks wool and flax,
and works with willing hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her hands hold the spindle.
She opens her hand to the poor,
and reaches out her hands to the needy.
Charm is deceitful, and beauty is vain,
but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
Give her a share in the fruit of her hands,
and let her works praise her in the city gates.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Song of Songs 2:8-10, 14, 16a; 8:6-7a

For love is strong as death.

A reading from the Song of Songs.

The voice of my beloved!
Look, he comes,
leaping upon the mountains,
bounding over the hills.
My beloved is like a gazelle or a young stag.
Look, there he stands behind our wall,

gazing in at the windows, looking through the lattice.

My beloved speaks and says to me:

“Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away;

O my dove, in the clefts of the rock,

in the covert of the cliff,

let me see your face, let me hear your voice;

for your voice is sweet, and your face is lovely.”

My beloved is mine and I am his.

“Set me as a seal upon your heart,

as a seal upon your arm;

for love is strong as death,

passion fierce as the grave.

Love’s flashes are flashes of fire, a raging flame.

Many waters cannot quench love,

neither can floods drown it.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

OT-Wedding #7

Sirach 26:1-4, 13-16

*Like the sun rising, so is the beauty of a good wife
in her well-ordered home.*

A reading from the book of Sirach.

Blessed is the husband of a good wife;
the number of his days will be doubled.

A loyal wife brings joy to her husband,
and he will complete his years in peace.

A good wife is a great blessing;
she will be granted among the blessings of the man who fears the Lord.

Whether rich or poor, his heart is content,
and at all times his face is cheerful.

A wife’s charm delights her husband,
and her skill puts flesh on his bones.

A silent wife is a gift from the Lord,
and nothing is so precious as her self-discipline.

A modest wife adds charm to charm,
and no scales can weigh the value of her chastity.
Like the sun rising in the heights of the Lord,
so is the beauty of a good wife in her well-ordered home.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

OT-Wedding #8

Jeremiah 31:31-32a, 33-34a

*I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel
and the house of Judah.*

A reading from the book of the Prophet Jeremiah.

The days are surely coming, says the Lord,
when I will make a new covenant
with the house of Israel and the house of Judah.
It will not be like the covenant that I made with their fathers
when I took them by the hand
to bring them out of the land of Egypt.
But this is the covenant
that I will make with the house of Israel after those days,
says the Lord;
I will put my law within them,
and I will write it on their hearts;
and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
No longer shall they teach one another, or say to each other,
“Know the Lord,”
for they shall all know me,
from the least of them to the greatest, says the Lord.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING

NT-Wedding #1

Romans 8:31b-35, 37

Who will separate us from the love of Christ?

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters:

If God is for us, who is against us?

He who did not withhold his own Son,

but gave him up for all of us,

will he not with him also give us everything else?

Who will bring any charge against God's elect?

It is God who justifies.

Who is to condemn?

It is Christ Jesus, who died,

yes, who was raised,

who is at the right hand of God,

who indeed intercedes for us.

Who will separate us from the love of Christ?

Will hardship, or distress, or persecution,

or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

No, in all these things we are more than conquerors

through him who loved us.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

NT-Wedding #2

Romans 12:1-2, 9-18

Present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

I appeal to you, brothers and sisters,

by the mercies of God,

to present your bodies as a living sacrifice,

holy and acceptable to God,

which is your spiritual worship.

Do not be conformed to this world,
but be transformed by the renewing of your minds,
so that you may discern what is the will of God –
what is good and acceptable and perfect.

Let love be genuine;
hate what is evil, hold fast to what is good;
love one another with mutual affection;
outdo one another in showing honour.

Do not lag in zeal,
be ardent in spirit, serve the Lord.

Rejoice in hope,
be patient in suffering,
persevere in prayer.

Contribute to the needs of the saints;
extend hospitality to strangers.

Bless those who persecute you;
bless and do not curse them.

Rejoice with those who rejoice,
weep with those who weep.

Live in harmony with one another;
do not be haughty, but associate with the lowly;
do not claim to be wiser than you are.

Do not repay anyone evil for evil,
but take thought for what is noble in the sight of all.

If it is possible, so far as it depends on you,
live peaceably with all.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Romans 15:1b-3a, 5-7, 23

Welcome one another just as Christ has welcomed you.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters:

We ought not to please ourselves.

Each of us must please our neighbour
for the good purpose of building up the neighbour.

For Christ did not please himself.

May the God of steadfastness and encouragement
grant you to live in harmony with one another,
in accordance with Christ Jesus,

so that together you may with one voice
glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Welcome one another, therefore, just as Christ has welcomed you,
for the glory of God.

May the God of hope
fill you with all joy and peace and believing,
so that you may abound in hope
by the power of the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

1 Corinthians 6:13c-15a, 17-20

Your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters:

The body is meant not for fornication but for the Lord,
and the Lord for the body.

And God raised the Lord and will also raise us by his power.

Do you not know that your bodies are members of Christ?

But anyone united to the Lord becomes one spirit with him.

Shun fornication!

Every sin that a person commits is outside the body;
but the fornicator sins against the body itself.

Or do you not know

that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit within you,
which you have from God,

and that you are not your own?

For you were bought with a price;
therefore glorify God in your body.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

NT-Wedding #4

1 Corinthians 12:31 – 13:8a

Faith, hope and love abide; the greatest of these is love.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Paul to the Corinthians.

Brothers and sisters,

strive for the greater gifts.

And I will show you a still more excellent way.

If I speak in the tongues of human beings and of Angels,
but do not have love,

I am a noisy gong or a clanging cymbal.

If I have prophetic powers,
and understand all mysteries and all knowledge,
and if I have faith, so as to remove mountains,
but do not have love, I am nothing.

If I give away all my possessions,
and if I hand over my body so that I may boast,
but do not have love, I gain nothing.

Love is patient; love is kind;
love is not envious or boastful or arrogant or rude.

It does not insist on its own way;
it is not irritable or resentful;
it does not rejoice in wrongdoing,
but rejoices in the truth.

It bears all things, believes all things,
hopes all things, endures all things.
Love never ends.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

NT-Wedding #4A

Ephesians 4:1-6

One body and one spirit.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and sisters:

I, the prisoner in the Lord,
beg you to lead a life worthy of the calling
to which you have been called,
with all humility and gentleness, with patience,
bearing with one another in love,
making every effort to maintain the unity of the Spirit
in the bond of peace.

There is one body and one Spirit,
just as you were called to the one hope of your calling,
one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
one God and Father of all,
who is above all and through all and in all.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

NT-Wedding #5

Ephesians 5:2a, 21-33

This is a great mystery, and I am applying it to Christ and the Church.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians.

Brothers and sisters:

Live in love, as Christ loved us
and gave himself up for us.

Be subject to one another out of reverence for Christ.

Wives, be subject to your husbands as you are to the Lord.

For the husband is the head of the wife
just as Christ is the head of the Church,
the body of which he is the Saviour.
Just as the Church is subject to Christ,
so also wives ought to be, in everything, to their husbands.
Husbands, love your wives,
just as Christ loved the Church
and gave himself up for her,
in order to make her holy
by cleansing her with the washing of water by the word,
so as to present the Church to himself in splendour,
without a spot or wrinkle or anything of the kind -
yes, so that she may be holy and without blemish.
In the same way, husbands should love their wives
as they do their own bodies.
He who loves his wife loves himself.
For no one ever hates his own body,
but he nourishes and tenderly cares for it,
just as Christ does for the Church,
because we are members of his body.
“For this reason a man will leave his father and mother
and be joined to his wife,
and the two will become one flesh.”
This is a great mystery,
and I am applying it to Christ and the Church.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Philippians 4:4-9

The God of peace will be with you.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Philippians.

Brothers and sisters:

Rejoice in the Lord always;
again I will say, Rejoice.

Let your gentleness be known to everyone.

The Lord is near.

Do not worry about anything,

but in everything

by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving

let your requests be made known to God.

And the peace of God,

which surpasses all understanding,
will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.
Finally, brothers and sisters,
whatever is true, whatever is honourable,
whatever is just, whatever is pure,
whatever is pleasing, whatever is commendable,
if there is any excellence
and if there is anything worthy of praise,
think about these things.
Keep on doing the things that you have learned
and received and heard and seen in me,
and the God of peace will be with you.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

NT-Wedding #6

Colossians 3:12-17

Above all, love, which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

A reading from the Letter of Saint Paul to the Colossians.

Brothers and sisters:

As God's chosen ones, holy and beloved,
clothe yourselves with compassion,
kindness, humility, meekness, and patience.

Bear with one another and,
if anyone has a complaint against another, forgive each other;
just as the Lord has forgiven you,
so you must also forgive.

Above all, clothe yourselves with love,
which binds everything together in perfect harmony.

And let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts,
to which indeed you were called in the one body.

And be thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly;
teach and admonish one another in all wisdom;
and with gratitude in your hearts

sing Psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs to God.
And whatever you do, in word or deed,
do everything in the name of the Lord Jesus,
giving thanks to God the Father through him.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

NT-Wedding #6A

Hebrews 13:1-4a, 5-6b

Let marriage be held in honour by all.

A reading from the Letter to the Hebrews.

Let mutual love continue.

Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers,
for by doing that some have entertained Angels without knowing it.

Remember those who are in prison,
as though you were in prison with them;
those who are being tortured,
as though you yourselves were being tortured.

Let marriage be held in honour by all,
and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled.

Keep your lives free from the love of money,
and be content with what you have;
for he has said,

“I will never leave you or forsake you.”

So we can say with confidence,

“The Lord is my helper,
I will not be afraid.”

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

1 Peter 3:1-9

All of you, have unity of spirit, sympathy and love for one another.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint Peter.

Beloved:

Wives, accept the authority of your husbands,
so that, even if some of them do not obey the word,
they may be won over without a word by their wives' conduct,
when they see the purity and reverence of your lives.

Do not adorn yourselves outwardly by braiding your hair,
and by wearing gold ornaments or fine clothing;
rather, let your adornment be the inner self
with the lasting beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit,
which is very precious in God's sight.

It was in this way long ago
that the holy women who hoped in God
used to adorn themselves
by accepting the authority of their husbands.

Thus Sarah obeyed Abraham and called him lord.

You have become her daughters as long as you do what is good and never let fears alarm you.

Husbands, in the same way,
show consideration for your wives in your life together,
paying honour to the woman as the weaker sex,
since they too are also heirs of the gracious gift of life –
so that nothing may hinder your prayers.

Finally, all of you, have unity of spirit,
sympathy, love for one another,
a tender heart, and a humble mind.

Do not repay evil for evil or abuse for abuse;
but, on the contrary, repay with a blessing.

It is for this that you were called –
that you might inherit a blessing.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

1 John 3:18-24

Let us love in truth and action.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John.

Little children, let us love,
not in word or speech, but in truth and action.
And by this we will know that we are from the truth
and will reassure our hearts before him
whenever our hearts condemn us;
for God is greater than our hearts,
and God knows everything.
Beloved, if our hearts do not condemn us,
we have boldness before God;
and we receive from him whatever we ask,
because we obey his commandments and do what pleases him.
And this is his commandment,
that we should believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ
and love one another, just as he has commanded us.
Whoever obeys his commandments abides in him,
and he abides in them.
And by this we know that he abides in us,
by the Spirit that he has given us.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

1 John 4:7-12

God is love.

A reading from the first Letter of Saint John.

Beloved,
let us love one another,
because love is from God;

everyone who loves is born of God and knows God.
Whoever does not love does not know God,
for God is love.
God's love was revealed among us in this way;
God sent his only-begotten Son into the world
so that we might live through him.
In this is love,
not that we loved God but that he loved us
and sent his Son to be the atoning sacrifice for our sins.
Beloved, since God loved us so much,
we also ought to love one another.
No one has ever seen God;
if we love one another, God lives in us,
and his love is perfected in us.

The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Revelation 19:1, 5-9a

Blessed are those invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.

A reading from the book of Revelation.

After this I, John, heard what seemed to be the loud voice
of a great multitude in heaven, saying, “Hallelujah!
Salvation and glory and power to our God.”
And from the throne came a voice saying,
“Praise our God, all you his servants,
and all who fear him, small and great.”
Then I heard what seemed to be the voice of a great multitude,
like the sound of many waters
and like the sound of mighty peals of thunder, crying out, “Hallelujah!
For the Lord our God the Almighty reigns.
Let us rejoice and exult
and give him the glory,

for the marriage of the Lamb has come,
and his bride has made herself ready;
to her it has been granted to be clothed
with fine linen, bright and pure” -
for the fine linen is the righteous deeds of the saints.
And the Angel said to me,
“Write this:
Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.”
The word of the Lord. Thanks be to God.

Matthew 5:1-12a

Blessed are you; rejoice and be glad.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain;
and after he sat down, his disciples came to him.
Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:
“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
Blessed are those who mourn,

for they will be comforted.

Blessed are the meek,

for they will inherit the earth.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness,

for they will be filled.

Blessed are the merciful,

for they will receive mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart,

for they will see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers,

for they will be called children of God.

Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake,

for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account.

Rejoice and be glad,

for your reward is great in heaven."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel-Wedding #2

Matthew 5:13-16

You are the light of the world.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to his disciples:

"You are the salt of the earth;

but if salt has lost its taste,

how can its saltiness be restored?

It is no longer good for anything,

but it is thrown out and trampled under foot.

You are the light of the world.

A city built on a hill cannot be hidden.

No one after lighting a lamp puts it under a bushel basket,

but on the lampstand,

and it gives light to all in the house.

In the same way,
let your light shine before human beings,
so that they may see your good works
and give glory to your Father in heaven.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel-Wedding #3

Matthew 7:21, 24-29

The wise man built his house on rock.

A shorter version (21, 24-25) concludes at the asterisk.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus went up the mountain with his disciples .

He sat down and began to teach them:

“Not everyone who says to me, ‘Lord, Lord,’

will enter the kingdom of heaven,

but only the one who does the will of my Father in heaven.

Everyone then who hears these words of mine and acts on them will be like a wise man who built his house on rock.

The rain fell, the floods came,

and the wind blew and beat on that house,

but it did not fall,

because it had been founded on rock. *

And everyone who hears these words of mine

and does not act on them

will be like a foolish man who built his house on sand.

The rain fell, and the floods came,

and the winds blew and beat against that house,

and it fell -

and great was its fall!”

Now when Jesus had finished saying these things,

the crowds were astounded at his teaching,

for he taught them as one having authority, and not as their scribes.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Matthew 19:3-6

What God has joined together, let no one separate.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Some Pharisees came to Jesus, and to test him they asked,
“Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife for any cause?”

He answered,

“Have you not read that the one who made them at the beginning ‘made them male and female,’
and said,

‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother
and be joined to his wife,
and the two shall become one flesh’?

So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Matthew 22:35-40

This is the greatest and first commandment, and a second is like it.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

One of the Pharisees, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.

“Teacher, which commandment in the Law is the greatest?”

Jesus said to him,

“‘You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart,
and with all your soul, and with all your mind.’

This is the greatest and first commandment.

And a second is like it:

‘You shall love your neighbour as yourself.’

On these two commandments hang all the Law and the Prophets.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Mark 10:6-9

They are no longer two, but one flesh.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark.

Jesus said,

“From the beginning of creation,

‘God made them male and female.’

‘For this reason a man shall leave his father and mother

and be joined to his wife,

and the two shall become one flesh.’

So they are no longer two, but one flesh.

Therefore what God has joined together, let no one separate.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

John 2:1-11

Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

On the third day there was a wedding in Cana of Galilee,

and the mother of Jesus was there.

Jesus and his disciples had also been invited to the wedding.

When the wine gave out, the mother of Jesus said to him,

“They have no wine.”

And Jesus said to her,

“Woman, what concern is that to you and to me?

My hour has not yet come.”

His mother said to the servants,

“Do whatever he tells you.”

Now standing there were six stone water jars

for the Jewish rites of purification,

each holding about a hundred litres.

Jesus said to the servants, “Fill the jars with water.”

And they filled them up to the brim.

He said to them, "Now draw some out,
and take it to the chief stewards."

So they took it.

When the steward tasted the water that had become wine,
and did not know where it came from

(though the servants who had drawn the water knew),
the steward called the bridegroom and said to him,

"Everyone serves the good wine first,
and then the inferior wine after the guests have become drunk.
But you have kept the good wine until now."

Jesus did this, the first of his signs, in Cana of Galilee,
and revealed his glory;
and his disciples believed in him.

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

Gospel-Wedding #8

John 15:9-12

Abide in my love.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples:

"As the Father has loved me, so I have loved you;
abide in my love.

If you keep my commandments,
you will abide in my love,
just as I have kept my Father's commandments
and abide in his love.

I have said these things to you
so that my joy may be in you,
and that your joy may be complete.

This is my commandment,
that you love one another as I have loved you."

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

John 15:12-16

This is my commandment, that you love one another

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus said to his disciples:

“This is my commandment,
that you love one another as I have loved you.

No one has greater love than this,
to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.

You are my friends if you do what I command you.

I do not call you servants any longer,
because the servant does not know what the master is doing;
but I have called you my friends,
because I have made known to you everything
that I have heard from my Father.

You did not choose me but I chose you.

And I appointed you to go and bear fruit, fruit that will last,
so that the Father will give you whatever you ask him in my name.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

John 17:20-26

That they may become completely one.

A shorter version (20-23) concludes at the asterisk.

A reading from the holy Gospel according to John.

Jesus looked up to heaven and prayed:

“Holy Father,
I ask not only on behalf of these,
but also on behalf of those
who will believe in me through their word,
that they may all be one.

As you, Father, are in me and I am in you,

may they also be in us,
so that the world may believe that you have sent me.
The glory that you have given me I have given them,
so that they may be one, as we are one,
I in them and you in me,
that they may become completely one,
so that the world may know that you have sent me
and have loved them even as you have loved me. *

Father,
I desire that those also, whom you have given me,
may be with me where I am,
to see my glory, which you have given me
because you loved me before the foundation of the world.
Righteous Father,
the world does not know you, but I know you;
and these know that you have sent me.
I made your name known to them,
and I will make it known,
so that the love with which you have loved me
may be in them, and I in them.”

The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.
